GERMANY WINS
OVER POLAND
IN PLEBESCITE

Upper Silesia Will Remain German Territory

DISORDERS REPORTED
Rock Coal and Ore Producing Province Retained

GERMANY WILL RETAIN UPPER SILESIA, SAID
London, March 21.—Germany will retain Upper Silesia. According to advices received here at noon today the plebiscite throughout Upper Silesia on Sunday resulted as follows:
For Germany—700,000 ballots; for Poland 449,000 ballots.

Berlin, March 21.—Although the German press claimed overwhelming victory for Germany in the Upper Silesia plebiscite official advices received during the course of the day showed that the Poles were successful in some districts. The German foreign office conceded Polish victories over the Germans in the Pless and Rybnik district in the southern part of Upper Silesia. The inter-allied plebiscite commission, which had made a careful study of racial conditions, had previously forecast a Polish victory in those areas.
An outbreak of shooting was reported from Katowitz.
It is difficult to secure detailed information out of Upper Silesia as the allied military and plebiscite authorities had ordered the telegraphs and telephones sealed up until noon Monday except for certain censored dispatches.

Gets Information Out.
The International News Service correspondent in Upper Silesia succeeded in getting information out by having it taken to Breslau from Katowitz by courier. From Breslau it was telephoned to Berlin. The correspondent reported that gunfire was heard at certain points near the Polish frontier for some time Saturday night.

At 9 o'clock Saturday night General Leronde, the French commissioner at Katowitz, ordered the newspaper correspondents to board the sleeping cars of a special train to be taken to Oppeln. Many of the correspondents could not be found so Gen. Leronde then countermanded his original order and issued a new one to deport all the correspondents Sunday morning. The Anglo-American correspondents made such vigorous protest it was cancelled.

Trend Is Shown.
The trend was shown by the following returns from various cities in the plebiscite zone:

Beuthen—78 per cent of the vote German.
Tarnowitz—85 per cent of the vote German.
Kreuzburg—95 per cent of the vote German.
Katowitz—82 per cent of the vote German.

Oppeln reported 31,000 votes cast of which 20,000 were in favor of the Germans and 11,000 in favor of Poland.

At Koenigsbutter 50,000 votes were cast, 32,000 being in favor of the Germans.

There was a heavy vote throughout Upper Silesia, said a dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Oppeln timed midnight. The whole plebiscite was reported quiet except at Katowitz where shooting occurred. No details are available yet. There was an exceptionally heavy vote in favor of Germany at Katowitz where the Poles are said to have only 5 per cent of the total vote cast.

Upper Silesia was under patrol by British, French and Italian troops during the balloting.

Germany claims that the retention of this rich coal and ore producing area was a vital necessity to the industrial life of the nation. The Germans declared that if Upper Silesia were lost, Germany would become a second or maybe a third class power.

KRAMER WRESTLING WITH NEW RULING

ARE FOUR CASES OF BEER TOO MUCH? HE WANTS TO KNOW

Washington, March 21.—Are four cases of beer a month too much or too little for the sick?
Prohibition Commissioner Kramer is wrestling with this question.

And should ailing persons, armed with prescriptions be allowed to walk into drug stores, get beer and drink it on the premises?

That's another phase of the new beer problem thrust upon dry enforcement officers.

Kramer finds the queries up for decision along with a host of others as a result of the Palmer opinion which "scrapped" the bureau's rules.

"PUSSYFOOT" MAY SUCCEED KRAMER

Columbus, O., March 21.—That W. E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, well known in the United States and Europe as a dry worker, is being considered at Washington to succeed former state Rep. John F. Kramer, Mansfield, as United States prohibition commissioner is the report current here.
Johnson, whose home is at Westerville, near here, is ill at Hampton, Ia. His wife today is en route to his bedside. His condition is not deemed dangerous.

NEW TAXATION PLAN WILL BE OFFERED HOUSE

Program Will Embody Recommendations of Special Committee.

PROPOSE AMENDMENT
Abolishment Of Uniform
Rule Is Object Of Action.

Columbus, O., March 21.—The house taxation committee this week plans to offer a taxation measure embodying the recommendations of Gov. Davis' recent citizens committee.

The measure, to be introduced by Rep. Freeman, chairman of the house taxation committee will propose adoption at the November election of an amendment to the state constitution abolishing the uniform rule of taxation, limiting the tax rate on real estate to 15 mills in municipalities and to 12 mills outside, and compelling collection of income tax.

If the amendment is adopted a special legislative session convening next January, will be held to enact legislation necessary in order to carry the provisions of the amendment into effect.

The Wenner bill, amending the workmen's compensation act by providing for compensation in cases of workers afflicted by occupational diseases, is expected to pass the house tomorrow. Other measures up for passage in the house include: The Schirmer minimum wage bill; The Burns bill seeking to restore liability insurance companies and an old age pensions bill.

The house calendar is being determined from day to day by a "fixing" or steering committee, comprising Speaker Beetham, Republican floor leader, Crabbe, Democratic floor leader, Atkinson and Reps. Freeman and Robins.

The senate is expected to take action this week on the Dunn bill, reorganizing the state departments, the Carpenter bill, appropriating about $91,000,000 to meet the operating expenses of the state government during the two fiscal years beginning July 1, next, and the Kryder bill, providing for a 12 per cent minimum butter fat content for ice cream, and other measures.

The Dunn bill, creating a permanent Americanization department under Gov. Davis, to begin functioning when the legislative committee on handling the work expires June 30, is a special order in the house for Tuesday afternoon.

MEXICAN RAILWAY
WORKERS GO BACK TO THEIR POSITIONS

Mexican City, March 21.—Eight thousand striking railroaders returned to work on Sunday and most of the remainder are expected back today, according to the newspaper Excelsor. Some groups still held out refusing to accept the settlement reached by the government with the federation of railway workers. The government is reported to be planning to spend $5,000,000 in the United States for new locomotives and other equipment for the National lines.

AGED COUPLE DEAD

Woodfield, March 21.—Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Latimer, aged residents, died in their home here within 24 hours of each other. Both had been ill.

Greek King Takes Charge
Of Army Against Turks

Partial Mobilization Begun By Greece Following Reports

London, March 21.—King Constantine of Greece will soon go to the Smyrna front to take personal command of the Greek army that is fighting the Turkish nationalists according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Athens today. The Exchange Telegraph correspondent said that announcement had been made in the Greek capital that the Greek army would be strengthened and that the king would join it.

DISORDERS IN IRELAND MARK
BLOODIEST YET

Twenty Nine Persons Are Known To Have Been Killed.

LORRIES BOMBED

Death List May Reach Fifty—Scores Are Injured.

Dublin, March 21.—Twenty-nine persons are known to have been killed in the bloodiest week end in Ireland since the present "campaign" began. It is probable the death list is much higher since both sides—Sinn Feiners and crown forces, are concealing their casualties. It was declared in some quarters today that the deaths may have totaled nearly 50. In addition to the dead scores were injured.

Two military lorries were bombed in this city when two British soldiers were killed outright and six others were wounded. Three bystanders were wounded.

Fighting broke out between unionists and Sinn Feiners at Londonberry but was quelled by troops.

A civilian was mysteriously shot dead in the heart of cork.

Numerous ambushes were reported from many districts throughout southern Ireland.

Sinn Feiners and Sympathizers covered many parts of Dublin with placards appealing for "support of the Irish republican army against the foreign invader." Police and soldiers were busy for hours tearing down the posters.

Mrs. Patrick Doyle, widow of one of the young Sinn Feiners executed by the British in Mount Joy prison last Monday, died early today. She never recovered from the shock of her husband's execution.

LABOR DISPUTE TO BE CARRIED BEFORE
NEW ADMINISTRATION

Will Make Peaceable Attempt To Adjust Packers' Trouble.

Washington, March 21.—The friendly offices of the new administration were injected into a labor dispute for the first time today in an attempt to peaceably adjust the differences between the packers and their employees and to avert the strike that is threatened.

Both the packers and the employees sent their representatives here to confer with Secretary of Labor Davis. Secretary of Commerce Hoover and Secretary of Agriculture Wallace will also sit in at the conference as anything affecting the packing industry affects their respective departments.

The employees' interests are represented by Dennis Lane, secretary of the meat cutters union and Redmond Brennan. The packers are represented by their attorneys, Carl Meyer and James G. Condon.

After conferring with American Federation of Labor officials, Lane said the employees would stand squarely on the arbitration agreement effected during the war and which was extended a year "after the proclamation of peace." It is employees' contention that the packing houses have flagrantly disregarded that agreement by cutting wages, lengthening the hours of work and refusing to arbitrate. The unions contend that the country is not yet at peace.

URGENT MORE RESPECT FOR AMERICAN FLAG

Boston.—Disrespect of the American flag will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law by members of the Daughters of the American Revolution, it was announced during the State conference of that organization. A resolution was adopted urging Congress to pass a law prohibiting the draping of flags for decorative purposes when bunting should be used.

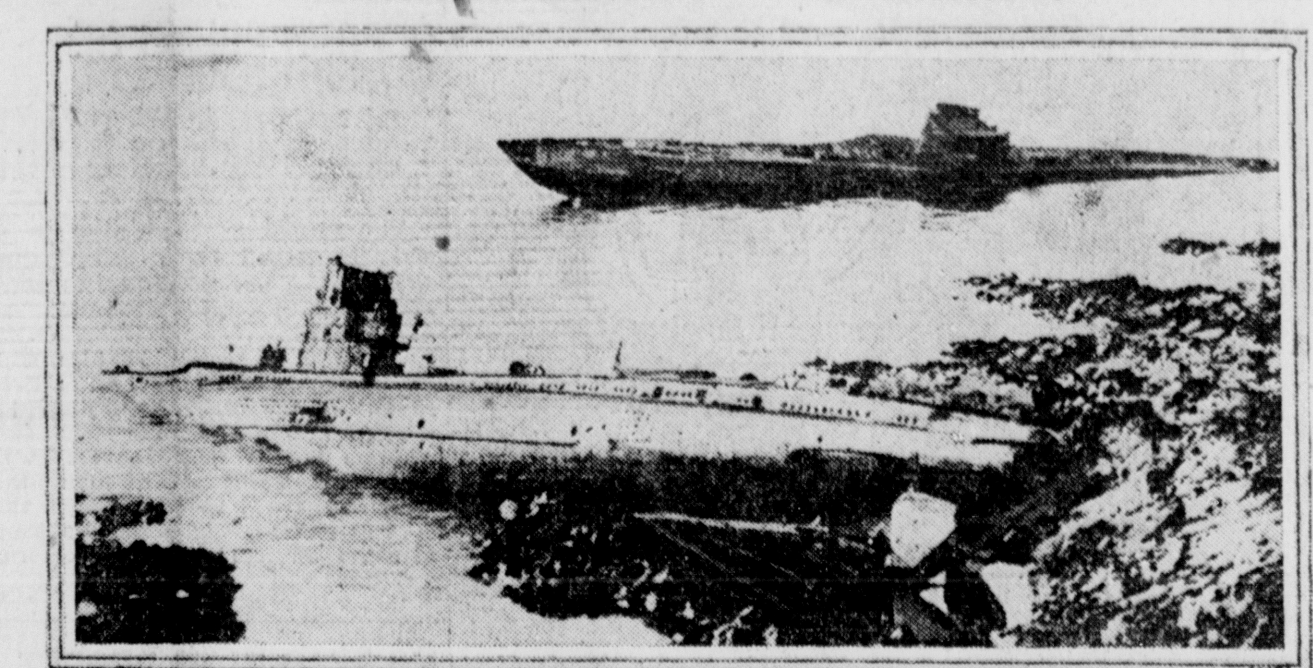

Greek King Takes Charge
Of Army Against Turks

The Greek government has begun partial demobilization of the army giving as an excuse the reports from Smyrna that Mustafa Kemal Pasha, head of the Turkish nationalists is massing heavy reinforcements in front of the Greek army.

The classes of 1913, 1914 and 1915 have been called to the colors. King Constantine has issued a public statement that it is necessary to make sacrifices to obtain peace in the near east.

Athens reports a massacre of Christians by Turkish nationalists at Cesera.

THE SEA CASTS UP ITS SPOILS OF WAR

A most remarkable after-war incident was the washing up on the rocks at Falmouth, England, recently of two German U-boats. Almost simultaneously the two U-boats were washed up on the rocks but a few feet apart. Both had been sunk in some manner during the war.

HARDING ADMINISTRATION WILL BE COMPELLED TO TURN ATTENTION TO U. S. EUROPEAN POLICY

Arrival Of Former French Premier, Who, It Is Thought, Will Urge Moral Support of America, Will Take Spotlight Temporarily Away From Domestic Problems—M. Viviani's Visit Concerns League Of Nations.

Washington, March 21.—Reluctantly or not the attention of the Harding administration will be dragged away from the things domestic this week and turned to the biggest piece of unfinished business by the old regime—the league of nations and the adoption of a European policy. The arrival of Rene Viviani, the former French premier, is going to take the spotlight temporarily at least from taxation, tariff patronage and the thousand and one other things that have kept the new president and his advisers laboring many hours a day since March 4.

Viviani is coming to the United States in the dark as far as knowing in advance what he may expect from the new administration. The new administration is almost as completely in the dark concerning M. Viviani.

That M. Viviani chief mission concerns the league of nations and America's attitude toward it, there is little doubt. Aside from this it is the general conviction that the premier's next big task is to obtain the moral support of the United States in the efforts now being made by France and England to compel Germany to pay the indemnity claims.

France believes whether rightly or wrongly that if the United States had ratified the treaty and joined the league, Germany never would have refused demands of the allies in the reparations settlement. Even now France believes, according to information reaching a number of Republican senators that if Washington could be prevailed upon to say something or do something that will show Germany the United States is still back of the allies the right-about-face of the Berlin Government will be swift and certain.

This indication of American support could be given in various ways—a presidential letter to the chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations; a senate resolution, a white House communication abroad or by a mere announcement to the press following the Harding-Viviani conference.

The four men whose bodies are believed to be in the ruins are Louis Reich, Arthur Boumann, M. J. Wilt and Amill Marsell. A check of employees of the company indicates that these four men are the only ones unaccounted for.

The two men whose bodies have been found have been identified as Paul Bala and Henry Osterman.

That it may be several days before the bodies are found is the belief of rescuers who point out that the bodies might be in some of the flooded grain pits and would not be reached until the tangled and twisted girders had been cut away.

Estimates of the damage today place the total at approximately $4,000,000. Damage to the elevator is placed at nearly $3,000,000 while it is estimated approximately $1,000,000 worth of grain was destroyed.

CHURCHILL MAY ASSUME POSITION

London, March 21.—Reports that Winston Churchill, secretary of state for colonies, may succeed A. Bonor Law, as government leader in the house of commons were revived today when it was revealed by the Daily Express that Premier Lloyd George has wired to Mr. Churchill in Egypt to return to England immediately.

JUSTICE OF PEACE MEET

Columbus, March 21.—The State Association of Justices of the Peace is to convene at the Hotel Desher here tomorrow. Initial session begins at 1 p. m. The meeting is scheduled to be marked by the selection of a legislative committee, determining upon standard fees and other matters of import to the members.

Called By Death
Early On Sunday

George H. Johnson, 41, of Cedarville died at the McClellan Hospital here Sunday morning at 5:25 o'clock. He had been a patient at the hospital since last Wednesday and underwent an operation for general peritonitis. Gangrene set in however and the complications caused his death.

Mr. Johnson would have been 41 years of age had he lived until Monday. He never married but is survived by two brothers and four sisters, Mrs. Laura Northup of Coshocton, Mrs. Leah Huntington of Springfield, Mrs. Lulu Bliff, Mrs. Mary Townsley, Charles and John Johnson, all of Cedarville.

The body was removed Sunday from the hospital to the Nagley undertaking establishment on East Market street, and will be taken Monday evening to the home of his brother, Charles in Cedarville. The funeral services will be held there Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock and burial will be made in the Cedarville Cemetery.

Appeals will be sent broadcast through the nation urging people to church on Sunday, April 3. This will be followed by a week of prayer and Sunday, April 10 will be

SID HATFIELD
AND 15 OTHERS
FACE NEW TRIAL

Will Be Tried For the Murder Of Six Other Detectives

STATEMENT MADE

Result Is Condemnation Of Private Guard System Says Coniff.

Courthouse, Williamson, W. Va., March 21.—Sid Hatfield and his fifteen co-defendants in the trigger trial were found not guilty by the jury at 11:21 o'clock this morning. Three minutes later Judge Bailey told the defendants to go back to the county jail where they will give bond this afternoon for their appearance in court for the indictments of murdering six other detectives. Bailey arranged to allow the sixteen men to go back to Matewan on the noon train.

J. J. Coniff chief counsel for the defense, made this statement to the International News Service immediately after the verdict was read by the clerk of courts:

"I think the result is what the public generally anticipated. It means, in my opinion that the private guard system in West Virginia has been on trial and been condemned, and the legislature now in session should take notice of this fact."

Receive Verdict

The sixteen defendants received the verdict without any show of emotion except that Sid Hatfield, chief of police of Matewan, smiled his perpetual smile.

After Judge D. Bailey had told them to "go back to jail" they crowded around Coniff and grasped his hand. Then, accompanied by two "double-gun" deputy sheriffs, they filed out of the courtroom where they have sat daily since January 26 and walked through lines of men and women congratulating them, across the courthouse lawn to the jail. "They are each under indictment on a charge of murder in six other cases, for half a dozen Baldwin-Felts, detectives were killed in the Matewan gun battle in addition to Albert Felts."

"The jury has spoken," was all that Judge Bailey would say in a response to request for a statement.

John Marcum of Huntington, W. Va., was the only state's attorney present in the courtroom when the jury filed in to announce its verdict.

He had nothing to say.

Outside all around the courthouse, crowds had been waiting for the verdict since 8 o'clock.

Dayton Man Tells Police He Lost $8240 Sunday Night.

Dayton, O., March 21.—F. C. Shaw had early this morning reported being held up by four masked men and relieved of $8,240—two $1000 bills; 38 one hundred dollar bills; eight $50 bills; and 15 $20 bills. He also lost his watch and chain, valued he says at $140. Shawhan claims that after midnight last night he was stopped on the west side and compelled to submit to being taken in his own car to the outskirts of the city where his cash was taken. The hold up men he says returned in his car, turning him out. Shawhan, police says, has been in court on bootlegging charges and several weeks ago filed an embezzlement charge against a foreigner, which has not come to trial.

U. S. TO INCREASE
FORCES AT PANAMA

New York, March 21.—A Washington dispatch to the American says:

Army reinforcements aggregating 125 per cent for the defense of Hawaii and nearly 300 per cent for the Panama Canal Zone are being mobilized quietly by the War Department. It was learned from the highest official sources today.

Although this step is being taken army officers insist without reference to any one nation as a probable or possible enemy, it developed that the War Department started its plans when it became apparent that negotiations between American Ambassador Morris and Japanese Ambassador Shide Hara were being attended with little progress and when jingoism became rampant in Japan.

There are now 12,000 officers and men at Hawaii and 7,000 at Panama. These forces will be increased to 27,000 in each place.

CENTRAL HI CROWD SHOWS REAL STUFF IN COLUMBUS MEET

In spite of the fact that Coach Confer's Central High cage crowd was eliminated in the semi-finals of Ohio State University's invitation tournament by Lincoln High of Cleveland 37-20, the locals established a reputation at the first State University meet, Friday and Saturday, worth being proud of.

The blue and white basketballers started off in a round of glory by defeating Columbus West, Champions of the capital city, 30-22, in the preliminary games Friday at the State University Gymnasium, a fact distinctly pleasing to the University students, who rooted loyally for Xenia all the way through. The championship of Columbus had evidently elevated considerable West High's opinion of itself and the take down at the hands of the locals, brought cheers from the lips of university students.

Blinded by fury at the fact that the locals were about to defeat them, the West High outfit started rough tactics in the second round, that greatly cramped their play, and resulted in two ousters on personal fouls by the tournament officials. It is the opinion of local bugs who witnessed the tourney, that had Xenia met either Akron Central or Canton McKinley in the semi-finals, the locals would have gone to the finals with Cleveland instead of the semi-finals.

The Akron and Canton outfits were both slow and the Rubber City outfit took a sluggish game from the up-state crowd, 12-11, thereby winning the right to play Lincoln in the finals. It is believed that the locals could win easily from Akron or Canton, although the fact that Saturday's games were played in the huge State Fair Grounds coliseum, left the locals at a disadvantage.

Columbus newspaper sport writers Sunday picked Captain William LeSourd, of the blue and white five as a forward on the mythical all-star tournament team and named Paul Boxwell, of the locals as a guard on the mythical second team. Both of these lads were honored by similar selections at the Wesleyan tournament and in the Greene County all-star selections which makes them stand out as among the best that the local school has developed in recent years.

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS WANT TO PLAY LOCAL EXHIBITION GAMES

Hiram Mason, Secretary and treasurer of the St. Louis National Baseball Club known as the "Cardinals," wants to book exhibition games of his team in this city on different dates during the coming season.

In three letters written to the "Manager of the Baseball club of Xenia Ohio," Mason announces that the Cardinals will have open dates on May 2 and May 3, enroute from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, open dates on July 24 and 25 enroute from New York to St. Louis and open dates August 15 and 16 enroute from Cincinnati to New York.

The Cardinals secretary says that if exhibition games could be arranged on those dates with any local baseball club, that the St. Louis Club would play its regular team, including Roger Hornsby, rated as one of the aces of the National League.

The possibility of booking the Cardinals here on any of the above dates, brings to mind the fact that so far not a word regarding a baseball team in this city has been suggested. In fact last summer, found the Meteors kid team, and the American Legion furnishing the majority of the baseball in this city.

The game locally does not seem to be a paying sport. Teams attempted in the past have barely been able to scrape through on a minimum of expenses and with a good season a maximum of receipts. A little misfortune and the team is on the rocks. Recently this condition has been such that it has discouraged the attempt to operate a club, for while the managers wish only to make their expenses and furnish the fans with some real sport, they have often been forced to face a deficit at the end of the season that discourages the continuance of the club. Whether some one will be brave enough to come to the rescue this year or not, is still a matter of conjecture, but in case any prospective manager wishes to book the St. Louis Cardinals here on any of the above dates, they can write Hiram W. Mason, secretary-treasurer St. Louis National Baseball Club, Cardinal Field, Vandeventer and National Bridge Avenues, St. Louis, Mo.

SECOND ROUND OF CLASS GAMES START

The second round of the inter-class basketball battles at Central High School are scheduled to start at the Rink Monday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock.

At that time, the Juniors and Freshmen, both losers in the first rounds of the series, will play the Seniors and Sophomores the two winners in the first games will mix it up. Tuesday afternoon the final games will be played with the Seniors and Freshmen mixing it up and the Juniors and Sophomores meeting.

NO REASON TO REGRET THIS EXPERIENCE

Health greatly improved by taking Drego, the herbal remedy.

"Since taking Drego my health is greatly improved. Food digests properly, bowels act regularly, sleep is sound and appetite fine," said Mr. M. Duke, of 445 Groveland St., Dayton Ohio.

As a rebuilder of a rundown system Drego is unexcelled. This wonderful remedy is made from extracts of herbs gathered from many parts of the world, combined with great care and skill to produce the best remedy for stomach disorders, sluggish liver, weak kidneys and to purify the blood. Sold by all druggists; specially introduced here at Sohn's Drug Store.

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

"Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

SAFETY IN RICH RED BLOOD

Gude's Pepto-Mangan Builds
Vigorous Blood. Recommended by Physicians for Thirty Years as a Reliable
Blood Tonic

A great many people, working hard every day, get in a run-down condition without realizing it. They have days and sometimes weeks when they do not feel just right, and they worry along, thinking that they will soon be in good shape again. It is true that they are not really ill. But when the system is run-down it is usually due to weak blood. When you overdo and go through exertion, lose sleep, and catch cold easily, the system gets run down, so that when an epidemic comes along, germs have an easy time of it.

If you do not feel up to normal, if you are all tired out and listless, take Gude's Pepto-Mangan for a while and notice the difference. It makes rich red blood, tones the system up so that you feel like getting things done. Your appetite comes back, you eat heartily and if there is nothing vitally wrong you will be yourself again. You will be up and doing and you will get exercise and fresh air and plenty of sleep.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is put up in both liquid and tablet form and is sold by druggists everywhere. The liquid and tablets have exactly the same medicinal value. Buy which ever you prefer and be sure it is genuine "Gude's Pepto-Mangan." The name "Gude's" is on the pack age. adv

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Notice—Owing to the large number applying for admission to the dancing class, it has been decided that no more members will be accepted, other than those who had paid for the course before the first lesson. Because the room was overcrowded with the number present last Tuesday, and because Miss Shafer is unable to handle a larger class, even those who have been invited cannot be admitted to the class or to the dance following. The committee deeply regrets this and suggests that Miss Shafer be engaged for more lessons following the six already planned, for the benefit of the many who cannot enjoy the privilege of this class.

NOTICE—The Social Service League will have clothing on sale beginning Tuesday. 3-22

ISSUE INVITATIONS FOR OLD FASHIONED DANCE

Invitations have been issued for an Old Fashioned and Round Dance to be given Easter Monday, March 28, by "Ye Old Fashion Club" at Junior Hall. The entertainment committee is composed of Russell McPherson and James Swindler.

PROBE FINDING OF BODY OF INFANT NEAR WILBERFORCE

Coroner R. L. Haines and President Gregg of Wilberforce University and other faculty heads were investigating Monday, the finding of the body of a colored infant in the vicinity of Wilberforce Sunday afternoon.

Mystery surrounding the appearance of the child's body has led to a number of rumors that so far are said to have no actual foundation of truth. Monday afternoon, Coroner Haines, was in the thick of the investigation in an effort to clear the mystery that has overshadowed the community and could not be reached.

President Gregg merely said that an investigation was being conducted by Coroner Haines, and members of the faculty in the University Library and that no decision had been reached by the investigators and as yet no statements can be given out as that. Dr. H. R. Hawkins of this city is assisting in the investigation is understood.

CONDUCT WEEK OF SPECIAL SERVICES

A series of seven sermons upon "Messages from the Cross" will be delivered by Rev. B. B. Uhl of the First Lutheran church, at the special services to be conducted by that church during Holy Week.

Christ's crucifixion will be told in an inspiring way, with a separate incident in connection with it, being taken for the evening messages. The services will begin Monday evening and will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

NAME CEDARVILLE MAN MANAGER OF NEW COMPANY

W. H. Smith, of Cedarville, a retired farmer, was named manager of the Greene County Livestock Company at a meeting of the directors held here Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Smith was named from a field of several applicants for the position. He will start his duties immediately. The Livestock Company is a subsidiary organization of the Greene County Farm Bureau, capitalized at $3,000, its purpose being to act as middle agent for Greene county livestock raisers and enable them to sell direct through the organization, without accepting the middleman's price.

P. H. FLYNN TO ATTEND MEETING OF ROTARY CLUB

P. H. Flynn, of the local Rotary Club, will represent the local Club at the State Rotary Convention, being held in Cleveland, Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. Flynn was selected as the delegate of the local Club at its weekly luncheon held last Friday at the Elk's Club. At the luncheon, A. C. Barclay, who is connected with the national Boy Scout Committee, addressed the Rotarians on the Boy Scout movement.

TWO BURGLARIES REPORTED SUNDAY

Burglars operated in two places early Sunday morning, when they effected an entrance to the W. N. Dawson meat store on Cincinnati Avenue, and the Elmer Owens barber shop, commonly known as the Pratt shop, in the Schmidt building, at Main and West streets.

At the former place, the burglars forced a front window, and stole $39 in cash from the cash register and a gold watch valued at $20 from the office. While it is also thought that some meat was stolen, the amount was slight. The burglary was committed some time after midnight Saturday night, according to Mr. Dawson and was discovered by him Sunday morning.

At the barber shop, entrance was effected by forcing a window in the rear of the shop. Only a few cigars were taken by the burglars. Both cases were reported to the police Sunday, after their discovery.

TO START CAMPAIGN FOR BEAUTIFICATION FUND SOON, HERE

Personal solicitation is being conducted by the City Beautification Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, prior to the beginning of the public campaign to secure funds to carry out the beautification plans on foot.

The campaign for funds will be started soon through newspaper publicity, and money gathered in this manner will be turned over to the City Commission. Although the city charter provides for a welfare department, such a branch of the city government has never been attempted here, but it is hoped that this will be the start of such a department in the city government.

In some sections, the beautification propaganda has stirred up community spirit to such an extent, that the property holders themselves are going forward, in line with the desires of the committee. Property holders in the new Dadds addition, from Detroit and Church Street, have undertaken a beautification policy of their own, and are planning to improve that section, by making it into a real park, with tree-benches, flowers and well kept grass plots.

Another plan, which the beautification committee hopes to work out, is the improvement of the empty lot on South Detroit Street, between the Gazette and Gallagher buildings. The lot has been rented by the Xenia Auto Necessity Company next door for a parking space for automobiles, and this firm has given its consent to the plan of the committee to build a white picket fence across the lot near the front, and to plant flowers and grass between the fence and the sidewalk, as one means of improving the looks of the tract.

ANOTHER APPLICANT FOR MANAGER'S JOB ARRIVES IN XENIA

Wilbur Cotton, City Manager of Ambridge, Pa., and a candidate for the position of City Manager of Xenia, visited this city Saturday afternoon and again Sunday, consulting with members of the City Commission and with City Manager Kenyon Riddle.

Mr. Cotton has been visiting in Dayton where his own, and his wife's relatives live, and it is partly for this reason that he would be near home, that he is a candidate for the position here.

The prospective City Manager, was connected with the Dayton Municipal Research Bureau for two years, during the first two years of the commission-manager form of government in Dayton. In 1917 he became City Manager of a suburb of Pittsburgh, later taking in two other boroughs, until he had three in charge near that city. About a year ago, he became City Manager of Ambridge, Pa., a city of 13,000 people, the position paying $4,500.

Mr. Cotton is a civil engineer, and recently in Ambridge had the experience of rejuvenating the entire city water works system, installing power plants similar to those in Xenia's new station.

AARON E. ELLIS DIES ON SUNDAY

Aaron E. Ellis, aged 70, passed away Sunday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Goe, at 606 Homeview avenue, in Springfield, following an illness of three months. He is survived by one son, J. S. Ellis of Oklahoma and three daughters, Mrs. Lucy Berg of San Francisco, and Mrs. Charles Dean of Cedarville.

Short services will be held at the residence in Springfield, Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, and the body will then be taken to Clifton where services will be held at the Presbyterian church and burial made at the Clifton cemetery.

PROGRESS MADE BY MOTHERS' CIRCLE

Attorney C. W. Whitmer Monday turned over to the Mothers' Circle, of Orient Hill a check for $50.00 which had been sent to him by John Charles Dadds, President of The Milford Pink Victoria White Granite Company, from Milford, Mass. The Mothers' Circle of Orient Hill is now equipped with a gas range, tables and dishes for their community suppers. They have rented grounds and are now preparing to equip the same with baseball park, quail and croquet grounds and other amusements.

The Mothers' Circle will soon give an entertainment to which the public will be invited.

NEW WATER SUPPLY NOW BEING PUMPED IN XENIA HOMES

Patrons of Xenia's municipal water works are now grinning and using the clean, pure water from the new supply at Old Town.

True, there may still be a trace of the old water with its chlorine purifier, noticeable in the city water, but a short time more, will relieve the mains of all trace of the old supply.

The new water works station at Old Town, pumping from the new supply was started in operation Saturday permanently, and the entire system is now practically surging with the pure supply. Many Xenians noticed the difference in the taste of the water Sunday although traces of the old chlorine water were still detected.

Monday morning Phillip Burgess of Burgess and Niple, consulting hydraulic engineers of Columbus, who designed the plant, arrived here to see the plant in permanent operation, and Leonard Griesbaum, of the Dray-Doyle Company of Indianapolis, which firm furnished the pumps, also arrived to inspect the pumps and motors in operation.

So powerful is the new power force behind the water, that the stand pipe was run over several times before the amount could be gauged correctly. It was believed by many that the power provided would not pump against the head after the water had reached 15 feet from the top of the stand pipe, but although the great pressure lowers the capacity of the pumps from 700 to about 500 gallons the pumps continued pumping in several instances until the water overflowed the top of the big pipe.

"This is the prettiest water I have ever seen," said Mr. Burgess, Monday. Having made a specialty of installing water works systems, he is acquainted with the usual type of supply that has to be utilized for most cities and in comparison, the water obtained here, is much better than that usually developed. The new water is clear and pure not requiring any of the chlorine that has been used in the old water for some time, is abundant in supply and once separated from the iron it contains, and which is detrimental to the pipes, makes excellent drinking water.

XENIA TO SEND SEVEN AUTO LOADS TO JAMESTOWN

A delegation composed of about seven automobile loads of Xenia members of the Greene County Automobile club will attend the Club banquet being given by the Jamestown members at the American Legion Hall, in Jamestown, Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

The committee to secure a local delegation composed of Charles R. Cross, Lawrence Wagner, A. Moser and Joseph Kennedy, has secured the names of about 41 people who will make the trip to Jamestown. In that village, a committee composed of N. N. Hunter, R. G. George and Edward Ballard, has arranged for a big booster celebration and banquet followed by a number of addresses.

Besides the Xenia delegation there will be a delegation from Cedarville and a number of members of the Fayette Automobile Club from Washington C. H. The local delegation will be composed as follows:

In the J. Thorb, Charters machine there will be Mr. Charters, L. A. Wagner, Charles R. Cross, J. E. Sutton, Kenyon Riddle and H. E. Elchman.

Dr. A. C. Messenger will take Secretary F. J. Slackford, R. A. Higgins, T. C. Long and John A. North. V. H. Donges will be accompanied by A. Moser, H. L. Binder, Thearl White Roy Ary and Robert Collins. With J. W. Prugh will be S. Milton McKay, Harry S. LeSourd and T. H. Zell. W. E. Borning will take L. S. Barnes, J. W. Clouse, J. Harry Whitmer and Elmer Waddle. Chas. Keble will be accompanied by Joseph Kennedy, Frank Fisher, H. L. Sayre, C. S. Johnson, H. C. Aultman and Dilver Bolden, while Ralph M. Neeld will be accompanied by E. S. Davidson, George H. Eckerle, George I. Graham, Dr. C. G. McPherson, Harvey Coates, R. D. Williamson and M. F. Jacoby.

The local delegation will meet at the Chamber of Commerce at six o'clock in order to proceed to Jamestown in time for the banquet at 6:30 o'clock.

PROSPECTS ARE POOR

St. Clairsville, March 21.—Eastern Ohio coal mine operators say prospects for a good season with the opening of the lake trade next month are poor. Due to a light winter and the industrial slump, the docks in the upper lake regions which held 25,000,000 tons of coal last fall for use of the Northwest are still well stocked. The bulk of the Eastern Ohio trade in summer is for lake shipments.

RETURN SHOWING OF PICTURE MADE

Owing to the great popularity and deep impression made by the film, "From the Manger to the Cross," a request for its return was made. Accordingly, this wonderful picture will be given a return showing on Wednesday, March 23, Supt. C. A. Waltz announced Monday. The first program will be given at three o'clock at the McKinley auditorium. The second will be given at the Zion Baptist Church at seven o'clock. Admission fifteen cents. Both programs are open to the public and a special invitation is given to the church membership of Xenia. The admission fee will be taken at the door for the afternoon program at McKinley Auditorium and by ticket at Zion Church.

The program for Friday afternoon and evening at McKinley auditorium is as follows:

"Madcap Madge," featuring the late Olive Thomas famous for her screen portrayals and winsome beauty "Manufacture of Paper," an educational subject, "By Might of His Right," a Sidney Drew comedy and "Lena and the Geese," a Mary Pickford comedy. This is a total of 7500 feet of film. The afternoon showings will be for school children only. The evening program at six thirty until ten will be for the general public.

FIRE LOSS SLIGHT SUNDAY EVENING

A carelessly thrown cigarette butt, is believed to have caused a fire that destroyed the awning in front of the Charles Kelble clothing store on West Main street, at seven o'clock Sunday evening.

Firemen extinguished the blaze by pulling the burning canvas from its framework and prevented the spread of the flames to the building, the awning being the only loss. Fire Captain Mahanna, following an investigation Monday morning, said the blaze must have been caused from a cigarette stub carelessly tossed on the awning by a pedestrian as the screens in windows prevented the dropping of fire on the awning from any of the upstairs windows.

APPENDICITIS FATAL TO WILBERFORCE GIRL

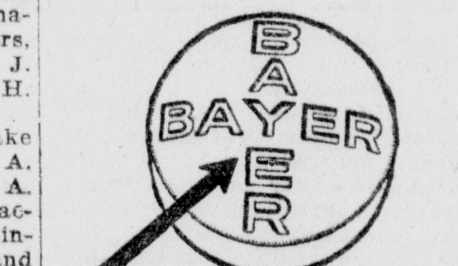

Taken suddenly ill with appendicitis Friday, Miss Bessie Myrtle Walker, a junior in the Elementary Teachers' Course at Wilberforce was operated on Friday at Tawawa Hospital. The operation did not save her life and she died at 1 a. m. Sunday morning.

Her death is the second one from the disease in the last week, Miss Mae Ella Harris succumbing to an attack of acute appendicitis last Tuesday.

Miss Walker's home is in San Antonio Texas. Her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Walker, hastily summoned arrived here after her daughter had died. Funeral services will be announced later.

ASPIRIN

Name "Bayer" on Genuine

Unless you see the name "Bayer" on package or on tablets you are not getting genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for twenty one years and proved safe by millions. Take Aspirin only as told in the Bayer package for Colds, Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Earache, Toothache, Lumbago and for pain. A handy tin boxes of twelve Bayer Tablets of Aspirin cost few cents. Druggists also sell larger packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylic acid.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Headaches, "dizziness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

PITTSBURGH MAN MAKES WONDERFUL STATEMENT

Declares Tanlac Enabled Him to Eat Better, Sleep Better and Work Better—Has Gained Thirty Pounds.

HARRY M. ALLEN
Of Pittsburgh, Pa.

"I consider Tanlac the grandest medicine in the world, for I have actually gained 30 pounds in weight since I began taking it. It has just simply filled me with new life and energy and for the first time in years I can sit down to the table and enjoy three square meals a day like other people. In fact Tanlac has made me eat better, feel better, sleep better and work better, and I guess that's all a man can expect of a medicine."

"Before I took Tanlac, I was off 25 pounds in weight and was so badly run down I was hardly able to do my work. Nothing seemed to agree with me and my food invariably gave me an uncomfortable bloated up feeling in my stomach, and although I tried many kinds of medicines, I never got relief until I took Tanlac."

"I also suffered considerably at times from rheumatism, but this has all disappeared. In fact, this wonderful medicine has made a new man out of me in every way. I feel years younger and can do as much work as in any day of my life."

"Of course, I am only too glad to give you my testimonial because I want other people who are suffering as I did to take this medicine and get relief."

The above remarkable statement was made by Harry M. Allen, residing at 1009 Saint Martin Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., a well known employee of the Oliver Iron & Steel Company of that city. Mr. Allen is a well known member of the United Presbyterian Church and is highly respected by all who know him. Tanlac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill; in Yellow Springs by A. Finley; Bowersville, N. K. Bowermeister; Fairfield, Paul P. Young; Osborn, C. J. Logsdon; New Burlington, W. C. Smith.

You can't unscramble an Egg

After a perfectly good piece of woolen cloth has been made up in a sweat shop by inefficient tailors—using cotton thread and poor trimmings—no amount of price attraction can ever restore the right to call the finished product a good suit.

Did you know that this is what is being done—that the market is full of poor clothes—made of originally good materials?

Workmanship is the life's blood of a suit of clothes. Careful tailoring, substantial lining, dependable trimmings are the three gears forward in every garment—and when you eliminate them—your best piece of $3 a yard worsted is at a standstill.

We are instructing our friends—wherever they buy—here or elsewhere—to insist on clothing of known repute.

Our Spring Suits made by (Michaels-Stern) are hand tailored and known from Maine to Mexico.

HOW IT CAME ABOUT THAT THE SUGAR BOWL SPILLED OVER LAST YEAR.

Every American family was exercised at this time last year over the sugar situation. Women were wondering, not what price they might have to pay for sugar before the summer was over, but whether they would be able to get any at any price. Soon the wild scramble began that forced sugar to skyrocket to 30 cents a pound at retail, followed by the collapse that brought it down to its present price of 8 1/2 to 10 cents a pound.

In a dazed way people are still wondering what happened. There was no doubt that the most experienced and intelligent men in the business were badly fooled. How did it come about?

The report of the American Sugar Refining Company, recently issued, tells an interesting story. Reports of a partial failure of the Cuban crop started the grabbing for sugar. There wasn't enough available in prospect to supply the demand, and by July 1 the price of sugar in the United States was the highest in the world.

The high price had its effect. At once dealers in every part of the world began combing out hidden supplies. Sugar began pouring in from nearly fifty countries, including Japan, China, India, Straits Settlement, Java, Czechoslovakia, British East Africa, and even from countries where sugar was under government control and rationed. Sugar that had been refined in the United States and sold to the British food administration was shipped back to take advantage of the unprecedented prices. Half a million tons more sugar was imported in 1920 than in 1919. Dealers who had been accustomed to get their supply from the American Sugar Refining Company placed their orders there and then in a panic, lest they should run short, placed orders abroad amounting to about 700,000 tons.

The high price magnet thus attracted to the United States considerably more sugar than there was use for, and the price broke. Within six months of the high record price, the United States saw the lowest price in the world. The fluctuations were twice as great as any in the past hundred years.

It was a trying year on the big handlers of sugar. When the crash came most of them were loaded with high price sugar. The government had fixed a limit on their profits per pound during the years of governmental control.

There was no guarantee against loss. The American Sugar Refining Company kept out, but by the narrowest of margins. It reports an operating profit of less than one mill a pound.

The history of sugar fluctuations for the year constitutes a fine example of the way the law of supply and demand plays on the job. A big demand acts through high prices to stimulate the supply. Then the supply comes in a flood and the market breaks. Fortunately, under ordinary conditions the law works with much less violence. Business would be in a bad way if it had to submit to such violent fluctuations year by year.

WILSON WOULD APPROVE ANYTHING IN THE TREATY FOR "LEAGUE" APPROVAL.

No better statement of the real meaning of the League of Nations to the great powers has been made than that by ex-Secretary Lansing in his article in the Saturday Evening Post. The prime ministers, Mr. Lansing says, soon saw they could trade with Mr. Wilson, getting virtually any concession they desired in exchange for approval of the league of nations. Then their problem was to make sure the league was what they wanted.

Clemenceau was satisfied with it since it perpetuated the supreme war council as the council of the league. Lloyd George, particularly concerned with Britain's new colonial possessions, was pleased to see the covenant bind them more securely to the empire. Orlando, assured of the break-up of Austro-Hungary and increased possessions for Italy, rejoiced to have them guaranteed by the league. The Japanese obtained assurance of their position in Shantung and their possession of the former German islands in the Pacific.

The league was popular with the powers because after they had redrawn the map to suit themselves, the league guaranteed their boundaries and pledged the United States to defend them. That is precisely why the United States turned it down.

HOW A GREAT MAN DID A GREAT WORK IN A BIG CITY.

The death of Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus of Chicago, marked the end of a busy life of sixty-five years, nearly half of which was spent in ministering to the needs of the people in America's second city. Few visitors to Chicago in the last thirty years have left the city ignorant of Dr. Gunsaulus and his extensive work. "Hear Gunsaulus? Who is he?" the visitor might ask following a suggestion from a citizen.

"Everybody knows Gunsaulus," the reply likely would be. "Why, Gunsaulus is a part of Chicago." "Nothing that appertains to the life of his town is alien to him," one of his biographers wrote: "He is bone of its bone, flesh of its flesh."

Time will not be needed to render a verdict as to the imprint Dr. Gunsaulus made upon the life of a busy American city. That imprint long has been clear. As preacher, college president, lecturer, poet, connoisseur in art, friend of the people, champion of the poor and the unfortunate, this man was known not only in Chicago but practically throughout the United States.

His work will live after him as it lived with him. His example has been wholesome and far-reaching.

The widow of Jake Hamon will demand the vengeance law of the ages, "an eye for an eye," and as the eyes of the entire nation are turned there at present she ought to have a wealth of material from which to select.

The fact that the railroads have demanded money claims from the interstate commerce commission, is not particularly significant, as they are not the only ones who are taking all they can get.

The residents of Danville, Illinois, have another good reason for keeping their private stock in the cellar since an earthquake there is credited with having knocked bottles off the pantry shelves.

It is remarkable the number of milk bottles that can be counted on the doorsteps about seven o'clock in the morning, especially when one considers the early risers.

THE OPENING OF THE GOLF SEASON

1901--Twenty Years Ago--1921

The Ohio Society of the Sons of the American Revolution will hold its annual meeting at Columbus on April 19, the anniversary of the battle of Lexington, and Dr. W. A. Galloway has been selected as one of the speakers to represent the local Nathaniel Greene Chapter.

Mr. Fred Baldwin, who has been spending several days in this city on a visit, took his departure last night for Chicago where he will resume his duties at the McCormick twine mills.

The superintendent of construction on the Court House is an all around hustler who believes in having plenty of material on hand. He now has about 150,000 brick here, five carloads having just been received. The iron beams for the second story floor have been received and are being put into place.

The new firm of Alexander and Son has been having a highly gratifying "run" of customers at their carpet store since its opening to the public a few days ago and their handsome new store has been the subject of many compliments.

WILES OF "VILLAGE VAMP" CAUSE DOWNFALL OF POSTMASTER HERO

Detroit.—"The Village Vamp," a $12,000 production.

John Middleditch, postmaster of Lunn, Mich., took the leading role in such a play and as a result received a three-year sentence at Ft. Leavenworth in which to reflect.

John, according to the testimony served twelve years as postmaster of Lunn. The village is one of those quaint, picturesque country towns, situated at a crossroad in Lapeer County, of the sort where everybody obtains drinking water from the town pump in front of the general store.

John was a respectable citizen, stood high in the community and—then it happened.

He fell for the village vamp of a neighboring village. Into her clutches crept the postmaster, his testimony revealed. His heart's desire was an automobile, a phonograph and new furniture. Unable to resist her languorous eyes and itching palm, the helpless postmaster fell, the testimony showed, and making out money orders to himself, cashed them, using the money to purchase the objects of her desire.

Postal auditors discovered Middle ditch's shortage and haled him before the court. Judge Tuttle sentenced him to three years in Ft. Leavenworth.

WILL ENTERTAIN FORMER XENIANS NOW NEAR CHICAGO

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwin Galloway, of 822 Monticello street, Evanston, Illinois, former Xenians, are planning to give a "Xenia party" at their home in the future. The guests at the affair will be former Xenians, who are now living in Evanston, Chicago or vicinity, and they are now arranging a list of former residents of this city who will be eligible to the unique affair. Miss Jessie Pearson, former member of the faculty of Central High School and Dr. R. A. Allen, are two former Xenians, who are assisting Mr. and Mrs. Galloway in their original plan of entertainment.

THIS IS THE BIRTHDAY OF JOHANN BACH

March 21, 1685

One of the earliest of modern musical composers was Johann Bach who was born in Germany on the 21st of March (7). 1685. His parents died when he was nine years old and his brother taught him music. But his brother was very jealous of the lad's great talent and forbade him access to a volume of music by some of the great organists of that period. Every night for six months the boy got up, put his hand through the lattice of the bookcase to get the volume and copied out the entire contents by moon light to the permanent ruin of his eyesight. And then when he had finished, his brother discovered the copy and took it away from him.

There are many interesting stories told of his struggle to learn music, in spite of his brother's jealousy. On holidays he traveled on foot to Hamburg to hear the organ played. Once he was sitting outside an inn, longing for the dinner he couldn't afford, when two fish heads were thrown out the window. In each he found a silver coin, with which he promptly paid, not for his dinner, but for his way back to Hamburg.

But Bach's genius was so great that it was not long before he was recognized, and from then on he was always fairly well off. He had, however, an enormous family to support, by his first wife seven children and by his second wife, 13. Some of his sons gave great promise as musicians. Much of Bach's writing was destroyed, for at his death in 1750, his manuscripts were divided among his family. His most beautiful music was written for church services and for the organ.

SPRING AT HAND.

The winter's nearly over, with weather cold and drear, and soon the grass and clover around us will appear; and little re-watched chickens will cheep to beat the dickens, and how my old blood quickens, when spring is drawing near! The grip of frost is broken, the boys are playing ball—and that's a vernal token that gratifies us all; there may be bluffs at snowing, and chill winds may be blowing before its final going, for winter has its gall. But gentle spring is coming with healing in her wings, and bees will soon be humming and handing us their stings; and romping lambs and fillies and mocking birds and lilies will cure us of the willies—and hence the poet sings. When all the world is frozen the poet, in his ire, bewails the trade he's chosen, and swats a halting lyre; but when the spring is waking, beyond all chance of faking, the bonds of winter breaking, he sings with Homer's fire. He sings of babbling streamlets where swim the trout and carp, of Luna's silver beamlets, of birds with voice sharp; he sings in soaring phrases about the woodland mazes, till some one, mad as blazes comes up and bursts his harp.

THE MANICURE

Several chats have appeared recently giving suggestions as to how to avoid manicuring the nails—that is, suggestions for keeping the nails in such good condition that a thorough manicure is necessary only once every two weeks or so. But when you do manicure the nails if you will make a very thorough job of it, you will find that you will not have to repeat your work very soon.

The very first thing to do is to shape the nails with the file.

The best file is long and flexible. When the nails are shaped to a point or oval, whichever is most becoming to your hand, the next step is to soak the finger tips in water to soften the cuticle. The water should be warm, with a little castile soap in it, and if it has a little lemon juice also, it will bleach all stains on the skin.

When the cuticle is softened, as it will be after a few moments' immersion, the next thing to do is to shape the cuticle. You can scrape the dead skin from the nails by using a cuticle knife or the point of your file, or you can use a cuticle cream or even powdered pumice, but I do not particularly recommend either powdered pumice or the various cuticle acids because they are so very drying. If the fingers are soaked long enough and a little cream is rubbed around them, you will have no trouble in removing all dead skin.

When the nail has been scraped clean, the uneven places around the edge should be clipped off with a good pair of manicure scissors. I do not particularly advise cutting the cuticle but in some cases it is necessary and it is particularly necessary on each side of the nail. A little cream should be left on the nail until the manicure is finished and you are ready to do the polishing.

The most important part of the manicure is in keeping the cuticle at each side of the nail looking smooth and clean. After you have shaped the nails and after they have been soaked you clean under them with the file and bring out loose bits of the nail towards each edge. You will have to make the nail perfectly smooth by going over it again with a piece of pumice board, and then you will have to clip off each corner where the nail touches the finger tip.

After you have made nails smooth and shapely, wash the hands in the warm soapy water, rub some polishing powder on the nail buffer and give each one a thorough polish. Wash off the powder, and examine the nails for any rough places that may have been passed over. Push back the cuticle with an orange wood stick and polish again with a clean buffer.

RED NOSE
An unusual number of complaints about red noses have come to me lately. This is due mostly, I think, to the season and the weather. If there is any tendency towards a red nose it will be much more noticeable in the winter than in the summer because of the cold weather which affects anyone with a poor circulation. One cause of a red nose is poor circulation of the blood. Another reason why red noses are common at this time of the year is because we have all been eating rather rich, starchy foods and our blood has become rather thick. When wet get well into the spring and begin living on the fresh green foods again the blood will thin and fewer people will be troubled with red noses.

Many write and ask me whether there is not some lotion that can be used to stop this. I have no particular faith in the few lotions for this purpose because the only way to overcome redness of the nose is to find its cause and then cure that. Improved health, improved digestion, good circulation will all be necessary but as the immediate local cause for red nose is congestion of blood in the veins of the nose immediate relief will be found by stimulating the circulation of the blood so as to scatter that congestion.

This is done by massaging the nose from the eyes to the nostrils and then by tapping it all over with the tips of the fingers. If this is done immediately after a facial treatment it will be more effective if you have held cloths wrung from hot water over the face. To finish the treatment rub the nose with plain vinegar. As these preparations are astringents, they will improve the complexion of the nose and will also help overcome its redness.

Myself—Yeast can be taken three times a day with meals as a means of improving the complexion. It is quite all right to take it if you are avoiding fattening foods.

HAD NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Mrs. Ireland Permits us to Publish this Letter for the Benefit of Others Who Are in Her Condition

Warsaw, Missouri.—"For five years I was weakly, nervous and in a run-down condition. Then I had a nervous breakdown and doctors said I would never be well again. After I took seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was healthier, stronger, and felt better than I ever did in my life before. I can't praise the Compound enough and will recommend it to all women. You may publish this letter if you think it will help others."—Mrs. FLOYD IRELAND, R. R. 1, Warsaw, Missouri.

Nervous women are both ailing and wretched, and with a nervous breakdown all joy goes out of a woman's life. It is said that the ills peculiar to women act on the nerves like a firebrand.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming such conditions, a large number of American women who were once great sufferers from nerve troubles owe their present health and comfort to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., about your health.

AUSTRIAN SOLDIERS ARE NOW JOBLESS; OFFICERS PENNILESS

Vienna.—A report issued by the American Red Cross concerning the conditions of former Austrian soldiers states that 5,200 former officers and soldiers out of employment are being taught new occupations. The report states that since the time of the armistice the number of unemployed Austrian soldiers has steadily increased until the problem has assumed grave proportions.

Investigations disclose that many of these men are starving and hundreds have become beggars. A number of specific instances are recorded. One of the most familiar figures on the Karmterring, a beggar led by a dog is a former captain. A newspaper vender whose stand is near a prominent hotel and who is dependent for a living upon the tips furnished him by pitying passers-by is known to the proprietors of the most fashionable cafes as a former 'beau brummel' a lieutenant in the Austrian army. Among these are generals who know no other profession than the military one and who find it utterly impossible to live on the meagre pensions provided by the Government. The new 'Wounded Men's Institute' offers vocational training for men of every degree of education and almost every trade. Agricultural pursuits are particularly popular and are being encouraged since the agriculture of Austria has been on the decline for many years

Middle-Aged Women

Hillsboro, Ohio.—"I can highly recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to women of middle age. I was in a miserable condition a year or so before I reached the climacteric. I suffered with inflammation and my bladder gave me much distress. I don't believe any woman could be more uncomfortable than I was when I started to take the 'Favorite Prescription.' I am now safely through this trying time and have 'Favorite Prescription' to thank for my present good health, so I advise other women to give it a trial."—MRS. J. W. KES

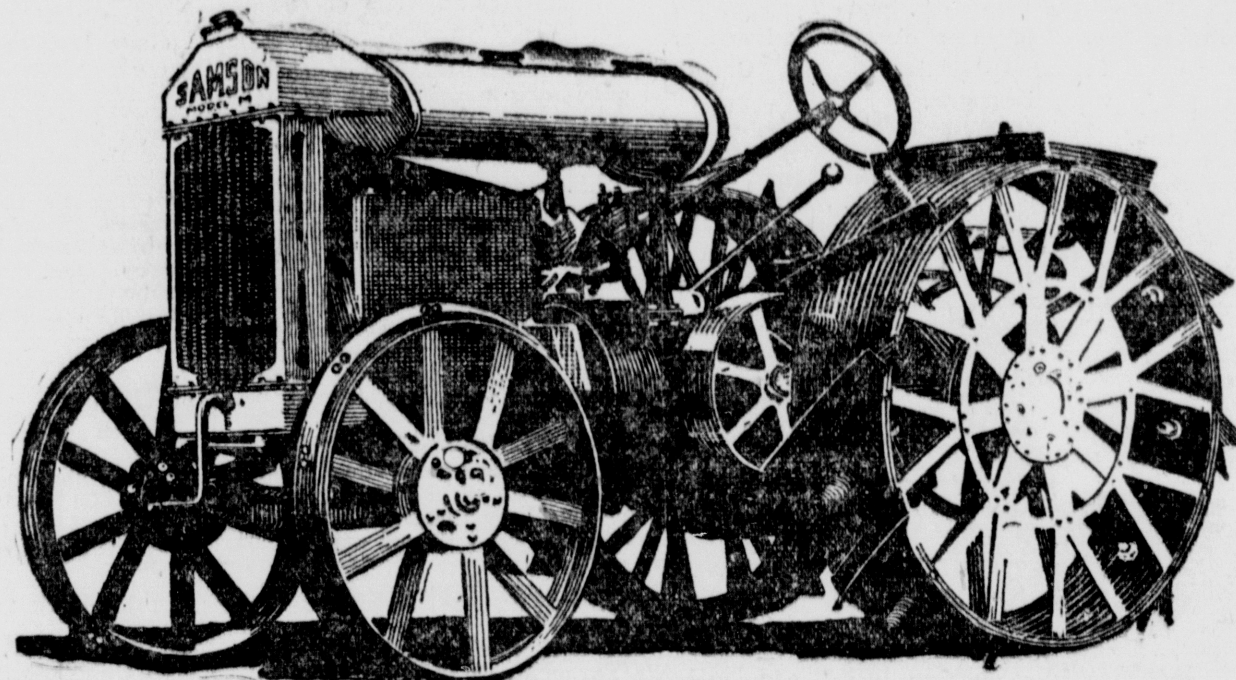

IF MOTHERS ONLY KNEW During these days how many children are complaining of headache, feverishness, stomach troubles and irregular bowels. If mothers only knew what Mother Gray's Sweet Powders would do for their children no family would ever be without them. These powders are so easy and pleasant to take and so effective in their action that mothers who once use them always tell other mothers about them. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Don't hide skin trouble—heal it with Resinol

No amount of cosmetics can conceal an ugly skin. They only fill in the pores and make the condition worse. Resinol Soap cleanses the pores, giving them a chance to breathe and throw off impurities. This is why when used with Resinol Ointment it rids the skin of embarrassing defects, keeping it so clear and fresh it can hardly help being beautiful. At all druggists.

Gas Buggies—Things to worry about

By .Beel

SECOND WEEK OF REVIVAL SERVICES BEGIN SUNDAY

Sunday evening's revival service at the First Methodist Church was witnessed by a capacity audience that filled the large church.

Taking for his evening topic the passage from Genesis concerning Esau who sold his birthright unto Jacob, Rev. G. A. Scott laid emphasis upon the definition of real profanity and irreverentness. "There are many ways of being profane," said Rev. Scott. "Esau was profane when he sold his birthright to Jacob for a mess of pottage. He despised the things that were highest and best. He thought more of his body than he did of his soul."

Drawing a picture of the man who sold his divine possession for worldly goods, and how he was blinded to the sacrifice which he had made, Rev. Scott told in a convincing manner the selfishness and greed of the average man and woman. He said:

"Esau sold his birthright for pottage which sitting down, he ate, and then rose up and went his way not caring for the fact that he had bartered away the best possession he had. That which is best for him than that which is eternal. Jacob in this transaction showed himself to be as profane as Esau, his brother. Only he manifested his profanity in a different way. He saw Esau weary and faint and hungry from the chase. He had him in a corner. He took advantage of his necessity to get from Esau that which he coveted for himself."

"Here we have a modern story in every respect. There are those who care not for God nor for the soul nor for the mind and heart. They are of the earth earthy, like Esau. Then there are those who like Jacob, have a desire for the best gifts but for the time being they yield obedience to the baser part of their natures and act profanely."

There was a wide difference between Esau and Jacob in life and character. Esau was profane and revelled in his profanity and continued in it to its ruinous end. Jacob was profane but despised his profanity. He was mean but hated his meanness. Angels appeared to him in his visions. He had lofty aspirations and noble ideals. He had faith in God. God saved him from sin and lifted him out of his meanness into a life of greatness. Sin accepted and obeyed leads to ruin as certainly today as it did in Esau's day."

A particularly impressive service was given by Mr. Hackleman at the Sunday evening service. "Christ Before Pilate" a masterpiece that has been viewed and praised both in this country and in Europe was the picture study shown by Mr. Hackleman. The evening's solo by Mr. Hackleman was "What Will You Do with Jesus?" The regular song service by the choir and the audience followed.

On Monday night Mr. Hackleman will give a short talk upon Charles Wesley the poet of Methodism, who wrote the universal hymn "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." Mr. Hackleman's solo Monday night will be "Jesus, Blessed Jesus," which will be illustrated with 20 beautifully colored slides.

PNEUMONIA CLAIMS JAMES PEPPERS, 16

Relatives here have received word of the death of James Peppers, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Peppers, of near Oregonia, former Greene county residents.

The young man died Sunday evening, after an illness which developed as the grip, and it is thought, later turned into pneumonia. Besides his parents, there are two other sons in the family, Frank and Beal Peppers, who survive. James, was born in this county.

The funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at one o'clock at the late home near Oregonia, and interment will be made at Lebanon. Greene County relatives will attend the services.

RECIPES FOR A DAY.

Steamed Eggs—Wash the eggs, put them in a covered kettle of boiling water and remove from the fire. Let them stand for seven minutes. Take from the kettle, put in a bowl and cover again with boiling water and send to the table. The whites will be soft and creamy and the whole egg perfectly cooked.

Nut Loaf—One cup of chopped nut meats, one cup of mashed potatoes, one cup softened bread crumbs, one tablespoon chopped onion, one teaspoon salt, two eggs. Add a little water if it seems too dry. Put into a greased pan and bake about one-half hour.

This recipe is a help in using leftovers and it is a nice left-over itself. It is very good sliced cold or reheated and served with a white sauce.

Pear Salad—Fill the cored hollows of canned or stewed pears with mayonnaise dressing, sprinkle with chopped English walnuts. Serve on a bed of watercress.

TESTED RECIPES.

Walnut Macaroons—Beat one egg white until very stiff, add slowly one cup brown sugar, beating constantly. Fold in one cup of nuts (English walnuts or black walnuts, that have been put through food grinder. Drop from point of spoon on a buttered pan and bake in a moderate oven until they are a delicate brown.

Baked Oysters—Take one and one-half cups of toasted bread crumbs and add as much finely chopped onion, celery, parsley and sage and desired, add salt and pepper, and stir in a beaten egg and a tablespoon of butter. To this add one-half pint of oysters. If the mixture is too dry to form a loaf add a bit of water. Sprinkle the loaf with bread crumbs and melted butter and bake in a covered dish.

Meat and Tomato Pie—Drain one can of tomatoes and place a layer in a buttered baking dish, then dredge with flour, pepper and salt. Alternate the meat and tomatoes until the dish is nearly full, having the tomatoes as the top layer, and cover with bread crumbs and bits of butter. Bake in moderate oven for forty minutes.

Apple Pudding—Half cup cornmeal, four cups milk, one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon ginger, three-quarters cup molasses, two and one-quarter cups apples (thinly sliced). Scald the milk in a double boiler, add cornmeal and cook forty minutes; then add the salt, ginger and molasses. Pour into baking dish and bake for one hour, stirring frequently. Add the apples and bake one hour longer without stirring. Serve with cream.

THE WOMAN HE MARRIED

GOSSIP IS RIFE
Should I tell Dick of this gossip. I decided I would speak of it not as hurting him, but as injuring Juanita. So I said:

"Dick we are both too intimate with Juanita to want harm to come to her through us."

"What do you mean?"
"People are talking about her saying that you visit her too often. Too much gossip for her reputation not to suffer now that you are no longer working together! I thought I'd better tell you for her sake. Of course we both know it is all right, but people will talk you know if they imagine there is anything out of the way."

"Damn the gossips! A friendship between a man and woman seems impossible to the old cats. I expect some woman has been talking to you."

He had seemed to be very indignant, but I noticed with some satisfaction that he went a little less often to see Juanita and that he came home earlier when he went in the evening. I flattered myself I had handled him rather cleverly when I pretended it was for Juanita's sake I had told him. Yet it made neither the innuendoes or the plying looks easier to bear, and although I said nothing more to him the gossip still persisted. Once I overheard a conversation between two women who did not know me. It was in a shop where I was buying materials for draperies.

"Juanita is up to her old tricks I hear," one remarked.

"You mean with that writer?" the other asked.

"Yes. If he is as attractive to know as he is to look at she will get him in the end. I am rather sorry for his wife. I never met her but I have heard she is a good sort."

"A good sort hasn't a ghost of a show against Juanita. She is the most fascinating creature to men—I ever knew. Even women get under her spell at times. Well, it is none of our business but if she took it into her head to vamp my husband I'd take him out of her reach pronto," and laughing gayly they passed out of the shop.

It was the same story with all Juanita's fascinations were irresistible.

Often I wanted to give up, to cry out my heart to Dick, beg him to love me, to be true to me. But always—knowing him as I did—I stifled the longing. Neither did I allow myself the relief so many women do when in the same trouble. I never went, never allowed Dick to see me anything but cheerful. He hated tears. Most mean, I think do. My quiet cheerfulness would make it harder for him than any weeping could possibly have done. Harder to tell me, harder to hurt me. But it required constant effort to do this and at times it seemed well night impossible to go on.

Dick had also developed an insatiable thirst for making money. He talked of the prices he hoped to get instead of the success he hoped to attain as a writer. It was evident that the mere earning of his living was not the problem. But to make a lot of it and make it quickly—that was his idea. Was it to be used to pacify me?

Once he surprised me. "I know perfectly well what you think about me," he said in a hard cold voice that, of itself, would have hurt me dreadfully. "And if it is any satisfaction to you I'll admit I have been rather neglectful of you at times. But"—he stopped as if he wanted to say more, and couldn't.

I made no immediate reply. I wished passionately he had either said more or not so much. I dropped my handkerchief then stooped to pick it up and so give him time to recover.

Finally I said:

"You have been a bit neglectful of me, Dick. Suppose we go out together often. It will give the gossips something to talk about." I realized he must have heard something to cause his hesitating apology—or sort of apology.

"That's a good idea. We'll start tonight. I'll telephone and ask Juanita if she would like to make a third. Then it will give them something to discuss."

I felt like screaming at him not to ask Juanita to go with us but to take me alone. It had been weeks since we had been out together, and now he would ask Juanita! But I said nothing, and while these thoughts ran through my head he had called her and she had declared herself 'delighted.'

"She said she'd rather be the third than not to go at all."

"Perhaps she was hoping I would not go then she could be"—I don't know, but I interrupted harshly, "and do look as well as you can. Juanita is always so stunning and you dress so plainly."

"I am flattered that even you notice my plainness when she is around." I would not tell him that I dressed as I did for two reasons. One for economy's sake; the other to mark more distinctly the difference between Juanita's bizarre dressing and my own simple attire.

The Big National Advertising Medium

The daily newspaper has always been the preeminent local advertising medium.

In recent years it has come to be the great national medium of advertising for manufacturers and distributors of trade-marked goods.

It is estimated that in 1920 the newspapers carried more than $700,000,000 worth of advertising, and of this vast sum, from $200,000,000 to $250,000,000 came from national advertisers.

Most of all the money spent for any kind of advertising was spent in the daily newspapers.

The supremacy of the daily newspaper as an advertising medium is due to the fact that it is read by virtually everyone, everywhere, every day, because everybody who reads wants to know the news of the world and of business.
